Check out the forums, after a ton of work getting this darn thing to intergrate they are up. Please let me know of any bugs, email me atrus@midvalepk.com or PM me on the forum.

No, the categories are not in yet. So any posts will be removed once they are. But feel free to test things out! Everything will be setup by tomorrow.

Oh yea, shoutboard is up also.

Enjoy!

Download is Up

Written by Senatious

The zip download of the client is now up, click the Download link at the left side of the page. We are working on getting a forum as soon as possible.

To run the game, download the client using the link at the left. Unzip the files, then go into the new directory and find Ody.exe. Simply run that to play. If you want, make a shortcut to Ody.exe and you can place it on your desktop for easy access.
